It may also be necessary for us to:

(1) use your Provided PI to perform an agreement with your organization, where we would be unable to provide those services to or receive them from your organization without that information (for example, if information is to be provided to you at your organization, we would be unable to provide that information unless we were able to use your Provided PI for that reason);

(A) If you are making an inquiry about how our services could help your organization: Then we will delete our copy of your Provided PI held for this purpose if, having discussed your inquiry with you, you tell us that you are not interested in how we can help your organization and it becomes clear to us that there are not other services that we could provide that would be of interest to you.

(B) If you are making an inquiry about how your organization could support or work with us: Then we will delete our copy of your Provided PI held for this purpose if, having discussed your inquiry with you, we determine that we are unable to work together with you or your organization now or in the future.

9. RIGHTS OF USERS IN CERTAIN JURISDICTIONS

In some jurisdictions, you have certain additional rights in certain circumstances.

(a) The information in this section is directed to those users located in the EEA, California or any other jurisdiction where such rights are provided:

(i) You have the right, with respect to the Personal Information that we collect about you from or through our Websites:

(A) To request access to that Personal Information;

(B) To receive a copy of the Personal Information that you have provided to us in a structured, commonly used and machine readable format so that you can share it with others; and

(C) To ask for that Personal Information to be erased.

To exercise any of these rights, please contact us by emailing us at privacy@agltd.com or writing us at Assured Guaranty Ltd., 30 Woodbourne Ave., Hamilton HM 8, Bermuda Attn: General Counsel.

(b) The information in this clause (b) is directed to those users located in the EEA:

(i) We are the data controller of your Personal Information: Except as otherwise described in this Privacy Policy, we are the "controller" of the Personal Information we collect about you from the Websites for the purposes of the EU General Data Protection Regulation 2016/679 (the "Regulation"). This means that we determine the purpose for which, and the means by which, we process your Personal Information and we are directly responsible for handling this data in accordance with the Regulation. For the purposes of this Privacy Policy, our affiliates are also joint controllers in respect of the Personal Information (in that they jointly determine the purpose for which the Personal Information is processed and the means by which the Personal Information is processed), and this Privacy Policy is also issued by us on behalf of these affiliates.

(ii) We use your Personal Information for our legitimate interests: Where our or a third party's "legitimate interests" is stated as being the legal basis for how we use your Personal Information, we make sure we consider and balance any potential impact on you (both positive and negative) and your rights before we process your Personal Information for our legitimate interests. We do not use your Personal Information for activities where our interests are overridden by the impact on you (unless we have your consent or are otherwise required or permitted to by law). You can obtain further information about how we assess our legitimate interests against any potential impact on you in respect of specific activities by contacting us at privacy@agltd.com.

(iii) Our affiliates with which we share your Personal Information are separate data controllers: If we pass your Personal Information to one of our affiliates so that it can respond to your inquiry if it relates to that affiliate, that affiliate will be using your Personal Information as a separate data controller for the purposes of the Regulation. For example, if you make an inquiry through the Websites about a service offered by Assured Guaranty Municipal Corp. or Assured Guaranty (Europe) plc, we may pass your Personal Information to that company so that it can provide you a response, in which case, Assured Guaranty Municipal Corp. or Assured Guaranty (Europe) plc will be using it as a separate data controller for the purposes of the Regulation.

(iv) Your Personal Information may be stored and process outside of the EEA: As noted above, your Personal Information may be stored at a destination outside the EEA and processed by personnel (who work for us or one of our service providers) operating outside the EEA. Assured Guaranty Ltd. is located in Bermuda, and the Websites are hosted in the United States, each of which is a territory that the European Commission has determined does not offer adequate data protection in accordance with the Regulation. If you provide your Personal Information to us by using the Websites in circumstances where our processing of it is subject to the Regulation, please note that you are doing so on the basis that you explicitly consent to the transfer of your Personal Information outside of the EEA. The potential consequence of you explicitly consenting to this is that there is a risk that your Personal Information will not be protected in a manner that complies with the Regulation. You can withdraw your consent at any time by e-mailing us at privacy@agltd.com. Withdrawing your consent will not affect our use of the Personal Information prior to you withdrawing that consent but it will mean that we will not be able to contact you about the services that we may be able to offer you in the future.

Where we receive Personal Information in the EEA and then pass your Personal Information to parties located outside of the EEA that do not offer adequate protection, if they are not subscribed to an approved data protection framework, such as the EU-US Privacy Shield that permits us to transfer the Personal Information to them from the EEA, we will enter into specific contracts to protect your Personal Information including those approved by the European Commission called standard contractual clauses, which enable us to transfer that Personal Information to them and that enable you to exercise your rights in accordance with the Regulation.

Please e-mail us at privacy@agltd.com if you want further information on the specific mechanism used by us when transferring your Personal Information out of the EEA.

(v) You have the right, with respect to the Personal Information that we collect about you from its Websites:

(A) Where that Personal Information is inaccurate or incomplete, to ask for the Personal Information to be rectified or completed; and

(B) To object to us processing your Personal Information by asking for the processing of that Personal Information to be restricted or stopped.

To exercise any of these rights, please contact us by emailing us at privacy@agltd.com or writing us at Assured Guaranty Ltd., 30 Woodbourne Ave., Hamilton HM 8, Bermuda Attn: General Counsel.

(vi) You also have the right to make a complaint to the UK Information Commissioner's Office or another European data protection authority about the manner in which we process your Personal Information.

(c) The information in this clause (c) is directed to those users located in California:

(i) We do not sell your Personal Information to third parties.

To exercise any of these rights, please contact us by emailing us at privacy@agltd.com or writing us at Assured Guaranty Ltd., 30 Woodbourne Ave., Hamilton HM 8, Bermuda Attn: General Counsel.
